Chinese New Year Special

- Chinese New Year, known in modern Chinese as the "Spring Festival" (simplified Chinese 春节; traditional Chinese 春節; Pinyin: Chūn jié), is an important Chinese festival celebrated at the turn of the traditional lunisolar Chinese calendar. Celebrations traditionally run from the evening preceding the first day, to the Lantern Festival on the 15th day of the first calendar month. The first day of the New Year falls on the new moon between 21 January and 20 February. In 2017, the first day of the Chinese New Year is on Saturday, 28 January.

THE MAKING Of Chinese Lantern

It was the eve of the grueling Hindu festival known as Thaipusam and he was there to support a friend undergoing the ritual of kavadi-bearing - an agonizing rite that requires devotees to pierce their tongues, torsos, and lips with hooks and pointed steel rods that are in turn fixed to an elaborate steel framework the kavadi, which weighs up to 30 kg.
